Thank you everyone who took the time to listen to some of the threats facing journalists as we inch closer and closer to solving the crimes coming from the Trump Administration and the Epstein class.

As mentioned, if you see online harassment, threats, or intimidation, you should always report it right away, either to the platform where they are posted, or if it is a continuing problem, you can report to the FBI Cyber Crimes Division at the following link:

Hugs to Ellie and everyone ever stalked/threatened. The creeps crawl out from under their rocks because Frump gives them the drive. They feel they can get away from it. They're cowards and are mentally unstable.

My experience with being harassed came with working in construction Carpenter . I am so sorry that you are experiencing this . It's extremely exhausting . I believe it says more about themthey are narrow minded individuals. I have learned to tell them there's a whole cup of go "fuck yourself. Don't let them steal your joy. I find it astonishing that these men have daughters and have no common sense .

There is growing OUTRAGE about this personal threat! We don't care if this is a mental case, a MAGA regime (thug or aliens from outer space. First and foremost is the safety of our independent journalists! Second, we the people, will seek out the perpetrators. There must be consequences for personal threats! FULL STOP! Spread the word, make this threat "exposed"!

New Mexico is so corrupt. I wouldn't be surprised if your threats are from someone in New Mexico or related to New Mexico.

Write your Congressman, your Senators about personal threats to independent journalists! This is a national issue. Whether this is a creep or a trump regime, no matter...this is an attack on all of us!

(GROW! Talk about these threats in comments! Independent journalists should organize! Threats talking about children, NO WAY! This is clearly intimidation that crosses a serious red line! The FBI should already open an investigation! This is more than cyber crime!

In our time currently, I think these attackers are part of authoritarian intimidation and abuse trying to shut up truth tellers.

The New Mexico sovereign fund has over $70 Billion in it (probably more) and there are Epstein criminals currently in power in New Mexico. This "group" could have tentacles threatening investigative journalists.

It makes some wonder if threats to citizen journalists are paid for by someone. Like the mob, ya know?

Ellie can you look into suing him? It will cost you but may with luck cost him more! I am so sorry this is happening to you. He should be warned to stop and then arrested if he doesn't.

Hey guys this sounds like they are starting to target independent journalists?? Just my opinion. But lev is right this takes money to start all this up so it could be people going after independent journalist because you all are getting to close to the truth!! The Epstein files are the biggest treat to them!! All of you do not take this lightly. Please be safe. Independent journalists are the best for truthful news!!❤️👍👍

What I don't understand is why Substack wouldn't simultaneously remove all the content posted by an offender. It's one thing to be threatened, but it's another to continue to allow such a person to still have a voice on this platform. That's what real checks and balances look like. I'm so sorry Ellie, we live in a frightening world and online threats are no different than in person threats.

Greetings from Winnipeg, Canada, Ellie.

Glad to be a paid subscriber. As someone who comes from the construction trades, I know that digging is hard work, and you're one of the best! :-)
- This has no doubt been posed already, but what about a legal fund for independent, online journalists? Substackers like yourself could join together and demand the inclusion of a button to donate to a legal fund. It could start with your small band of wondrous diggers, and expand out to others, and could get to the point of an online journalist's union with higher standards and legal protections than that of mainstream media. I was involved with some of this work with IndyMedia, back in the day..

I am so sorry that you are being harassed, Ellie. As much as you know that your work is essential, and that your voice is needed, this adds a whole terrible dimension. However the community can support you, we want to.
